

Located within one kilometer south of the CBD, the inner south's proximity has made the area ideal for young professionals attracted to the vibrancy of inner city living.

Southbank provides a diverse range of activities including Brisbane's best cycling tracks and walkways, IMAX movie theatre and a diverse range of dining venues which all provide an enviable lifestyle.

Cultural pursuits are on offer with the Museum, State Library, Millennium Arts Centre, Convention Centre, QPAC and Queensland Theatre all within walking distance. A first rate public transport network, including rail, bus and ferry services offers stress free travel to the city and surrounding suburbs.

West End markets are nearby in addition to a diverse range of multicultural restaurants, bars, long established coffee houses that sit alongside convenience stores, boutiques and specialty shops

The superbly refurbished Fox Hotel and SW1, a chic new office/retail centre, contributes to the lively and assorted personality of this precinct

Abundant open space, dominated by large parklands, the river and the inner south's unique character, make it a great place to relax

Apartment Living....

The plush contemporary feel of South Central's interiors, a deliberate mix of classic and modern, has been achieved by incorporating form and function. Top of the range custom fittings and accessories, like granite bench tops and timber flooring, exemplify the rich quality of the finishing in any of the generously proportioned rooms and provide the perfect backdrop to complement individual tastes and decorative direction while maintaining longevity of design.

Hand-picked accessories, complement lavishly textured finishing and add layers to crisp, clean and light interiors. For quality space and classic style, South Central's excellence in design provides a ready to live in foundation for your palette. On the roof deck of South Central all residents will be provided with extraordinary facilities. In addition to magnificent 360° views, a 12.5m pool, bbq facilities and sundeck will be included. Facilities such as these are usually only available to penthouse residents. These features reflect South Central's commitment to providing an unrivalled lifestyle opportunity.

Penthouse Living...

South Central is truly spectacular. Magnificent views can be enjoyed from every window as you soak up Brisbane's changing moods and experience life at the top. Live seamlessly with home automation at your fingertips. Enjoy effortless entertaining on the rooftop with a deluxe pizza oven, bar, bbq and spa.

