

Bicycle Safety Sticker Contest!

Contest Information and Rules

All participants must have parent's permission to reproduce the character and participate. Please make sure to have a parent's signature and also be sure to include your full address.

There will be one winner chosen each month during the school year. The winner will receive a framed certificate along with 100 stickers to give to family and friends. The winning sticker will also be used by Mobile Fire and Rescue at their educational demonstrations focusing on bicycle and fire safety at surrounding Mobile County schools, both public and private, and other public events.

Winner's award will be posted at three Firehouse Subs and will receive a free kid's meal courtesy of Firehouse Subs. Their award will also be posted on the website at www.KarenIvey.com.

Entry forms and stickers can be picked up at Firehouse Subs or through Karen Ivey at RE/MAX Partners. Additional forms can be found on the website.

Karen Ivey with RE/MAX Partners, Firehouse Subs and everyone with Mobile Fire and Rescue thank you for your participation in this event.

Please remember that the winners are chosen at random. There is no need to worry about being the best artist.
