Chicago's Hot Neighborhoods

Lincoln Park

Known for its great schools, shopping, and plush condos, Lincoln Park has a lot to offer young families or even young professionals. Great for those looking to settle down within the city without giving up on the night life and culture.

South Loop

The South Loop offers all of the convenience of downtown high-rise living with a slightly smaller price tag. With all the museums and parks nearby, the South Loop is brimming with new development and potential.

Logan Square

Home to the popular Bucktown, Logan Square is known for its charming local flavor. The area has seen a lot of development in recent decades resulting in a bustling local business community and an abundance of amenity-rich rehabs.

Lakeview

Good restaurants and boutique shopping are never more than a few blocks away in Lakeview. The great schools, luxurious condos, and safe residential areas make the neighborhood popular for families. Younger buyers enjoy the area's activity.

Near North

Downtown high-rise living at its finest. Home to Chicago's most prestigious neighborhoods--Gold Coast and Streeterville--Near North is perfect for those who spare no expense when it comes to comfort or luxury.

Uptown

The comparatively smaller prices, beautiful parks and beaches, and numerous live venues make Uptown a target for young people and first-time buyers. A dollar goes very far in Uptown.
